21. Western Colonial Mindset: is one of separation – mind from body, spirit from matter, people from the land. We are separate from our indigenous roots. And when separate we believe in dominance/submission, superior/inferior.

27. NetSpirit Syntony Centers and Centers of SuperCoherence. THC is serving the development of an evolving network of centers where like-minded people meet and share, explore, practice and be in syntony and coherence.
 Supercoherence is coherence both within the complex open systems that populate the biosphere, and between the systems. In a condition of supercoherence all elements of the system are sensitive and responsive to all its other elements (intrinsic coherence), and the coherent system is sensitive and responsive to the systems that constitute its life-supporting environment (extrinsic coherence).
